

George Murphy Will Address GOP Women

Actor-producer George Murphy heads the list of speakers scheduled to address the annual convention of the Southern Division, California Federation of Republican Women, at Los Angeles on Oct. 16.

Over 800 delegates and guests from the 184 Republican Women's Clubs in Southern California are planning to attend the convention to be held in the Ambassador Hotel. Mr. Murphy will speak on "The Importance of a November Victory."

Caspar W. Weinberger, chairman of the Republican State Central Committee, will deliver the keynote speech at the morning session which will begin at 10. His subject will be "What We Will Need to Win."

A special feature of the noon luncheon will be presentation of an honorary

Southern Division membership to Mrs. Ivy Baker Priest Stevens, former treasurer of the United States. Mrs. Logan H. Goodknight, Long Beach president of the Southern Division, will make the award.

During the morning meeting, Mrs. James S. Gallagher, Santa Ana, will outline the intensive campaign and precinct activities in which the 35,000 Southern Division members are now participating.

Mrs. Douglas Yarbrough, Fullerton, convention chairman, anticipates the biggest convention in Southern Division history.

Mothers of Twins To Greet New Members

South Bay Mothers of Twins Club will welcome nine new members at their Oct. 15 coffee-dessert meeting to be held at the American Loan and Savings Co. in Redondo Beach.

The new members will be introduced by Mrs. Glen V. Smith of Torrance, president, after which each will be given a carnation corsage by membership chairman, Mrs. Ronald Eisman of Torrance.

The new members are: Mmes Russell Cameron, Bernard Coen, Alfred Cowgill, Samuel Fillon, Ziggy Gottlieb, Bing Harris, Cleve Kimmel, Octavio Martinez and Robert Minot. With the addition of these nine new members, the club membership now totals 71 mothers of twins.

Among these, there are two mothers with double sets of twins each and two mothers boasting a set of triplets each.

The new members will participate in the Exchange Table, a special club feature whereby twins' clothing, toys and equipment are exchanged for nominal prices.

As a gourmet treat of the October coffee-dessert gathering, social chairman Mrs. Richard Cassell of Redondo Beach has asked each member to bring two dozen of her favorite prize-recipe cookies. At the meeting's conclusion each member will then choose one dozen of the assorted cookies remaining to bring back home to her twins and family.

Philanthropy Chairman Mrs. Eric Jones of Redondo Beach and Mrs. John Adams of San Pedro report that last week the club presented to its adopted family a half month's supply of grocery staples and baby food, all contributed by the individual club members.

On Nov 2 the club members and their guests will attend the Off-Broadway Theater in Long Beach to see the Arthur Laurents play, "Invitation to a March."

This comedy hit was well received by the Broadway drama critics and club members anticipate a delightful evening at the theater.

For further information, any interested mother of twins or triplets in the area is invited to call Mrs. Ronald Eisman of Torrance.

Wands-Moore Vows Read In Candlelight Service

Walteria Community Methodist Church was the setting for the 8 o'clock candlelight wedding ceremony Sept. 15, when Miss Wanda Wands, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dale T. Wands, 24255 Los Codona, Walteria, exchanged her wedding vows with Gary Moore. Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. James Moore, Downey.

Mrs. Eileen Paddleford, organist, played the wedding marches and accompanied Jim Sullivan, who sang "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer."

The Rev. David O. Beadles, stood before the flower-banked altar, to officiate at the marriage ceremony.

On the arm of her father, the bride came to the altar wearing a traditional gown of white lace fashioned with a scalloped neckline, long pointed sleeves and a full floor length skirt. Sequined appliques decorated the neckline and the skirt. A pearl tiara secured her elbow-length illusion veil and the bride carried a white prayer book and a bouquet of butterfly orchids and stephanotis.

Miss Elaine Baltad was the maid of honor. She wore an ice blue satin gown and carried a crescent of white carnations. Bridesmaids were Misses Carla Cramer and Susan Piscitelli. Their gowns were of medium blue peau de soie and satin. Each carried a crescent of white carnations.

Don Clark performed the duties of best man and ushers were Cecil Stark and Gary Douthitt.

A reception was held in the church social hall. Miss Marcella Winn was in charge of the guest book.

The newlyweds spent a honeymoon in Carmel and are now at home at 4625 Bellflower Blvd., Long Beach.

The bride, a graduate of South High School, is employed at the Union Bank in Los Angeles.

Her husband, a Downey High School graduate, is employed by Autonetics, in Compton.

Tolson Home Party Scene

Cindy Lee Tolson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Tolson, 5413 Konya Dr., celebrated her twelfth birthday with a slumber party recently.

Guests were Lori Ann Witt, Leslie and Claudia Barrington, Lori Voien, Pam Boswell, Shelley Clark, Kathleen Warne, Carol Ogren and Cara Armstrong.

FOOD GIANT "I buy the best meat here!"

"If I could award a trophy—as Australia awarded me for top model of the year—it would be to Food Giant for their wonderful meats! They certainly are tops and the people in the meat department are models of courtesy and efficiency. It's no trick at all to prepare delicious meals for my husband when I start with the excellent meat that I buy here. My dog would like to add a vote too! He says, from his point of view, that Food Giant's bones are simply gr-r-reat! And, they are always free for the asking!"
